Our Mission: To form intentional

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:

*You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve.*"

- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

Lent-Prayer; Fasting; Almsgiving

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DIEHM

Dear pastorate family,

A dark and evil figure rears his ugly head on this first Sunday of Lent – none other than the Devil Himself. After Jesus' baptism, He was led by the Spirit out into the desert. Jesus was praying and fasting during His time in the desert, and during that time, He experienced temptation from the Devil, the evil one, also known as Satan. It was the Devil who first deceived Adam and Eve to act against God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that, “391) Behind the disobedient choice of our first parents lurks a seductive voice, opposed to God, which makes them fall into death out of envy. Scripture and the Church's Tradition see in this being a fallen angel, called "Satan" or the "devil". The Church teaches that Satan was at first a good angel, made by God: "The devil and the other demons were indeed created naturally good by God, but they became evil by their own doing."”

The Devil is NOT a myth or an allegory. He is a real, personal, spiritual being who has been active throughout the history of the world and continues that activity in our own time. His diabolical agenda is to get people to turn away from God. He solicits them toward eternal death by enticing them to use their free will to act against God. He can't force anyone to do anything that they don't freely choose, but once he has a person's consent, his purpose is their eternal ruin. Just as Jesus was tempted by the evil one, you, too, should anticipate being tempted. Our best defense against temptation is the scriptures, as Jesus Himself used the scriptures to counter the Devil's every temptation. This Lent, arm yourself with the scriptures, and with prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. So armed, may we not be led astray by the evil one but journey with Jesus and come with Him into the eternal life God wants for all His children.

God bless, Fr. Diehm

PRAYER – One of the “pillars” of our Lenten observance

We continue to go through the fourth part of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) on prayer. What follows is the sixth and seventh paragraphs from the Catechism on prayer – “2563) The heart is the dwelling-place where I am, where I live; according to the Semitic or Biblical expression, the heart is the place "to which I withdraw." The heart is our hidden center, beyond the grasp of our reason and of others; only the Spirit of God can fathom the human heart and know it fully. The heart is the place of decision, deeper than our psychic drives. It is the place of truth, where we choose life or death. It is the place of encounter, because as image of God we live in relation: it is the place of covenant. 2564) Christian prayer is a covenant relationship between God and man in Christ. It is the action of God and of man, springing forth from both the Holy Spirit and ourselves, wholly directed to the Father, in union with the human will of the Son of God made man.” This quote follows the quote from last week which spoke about the heart as being the source of prayer. This Lent is a good opportunity for us to examine our hearts – are they receptive to God? And to whose voice are we listening? The voice of God, or the voice of the evil one? How we answer that question is essential for a healthy spiritual life. The voice of God never contradicts Himself – how God speaks to us in prayer will never contradict what God has told us in His sacred Word. But the evil one lies and will even twist scripture to suit his purpose. This Lent, let's train ourselves to listen to the voice of God and to reject the voice of the evil one. In so doing, may we faithfully follow God toward the new life of the resurrection, toward the joy of Easter.
